REMEMBRANCE....

PATTON

6:30 Mon. Nov. 4

George C. Scott is General George Patton, hard-boiled, hot tempered big boy, commanding big toys. Karl Malden equally impressive as General Omar Bradley. A milestone in screen biographies. Winner of seven Oscars - picture, actor, director, screenplay etc. Epic story, epic length - 2hr 49min. (starts sharp at 6:30) PG

The War Between Us

A very special presentation. The moving true story of the internment of Japanese Canadians from B.C.'s shores during W.W.II. Anne Wheeler, the director, responded to my request to be able to show it on Remembrance Day by sending me both the video plus a bonus. The half hour documentary, Teru Teru Bozu, tells an even more fascinating story of the making of the feature. As well as the film maker's craft, it describes the incredible way history entwined with the life stories of so many of those involved in the project and how the integrity of the process shines through in the finished piece. PG

Charming and bittersweet, this modern day romantic comedy starring Uma Thurman, Janeane Garofalo and Ben Chaplin explores the beguiling perils of (intentional) mistaken identity. PG

Mordecai Richler's wonderful story and screenplay describe a Montreal Jewish son's attempt to succeed in a world vastly different than those of his parents. A Classic. James Wood and Alan Arkin (as his particularly earthy roots) are great! R Colorful language, some nudity

BLACK BEAUTY

A richly told story of a horse's life in 1800's Britain, told in the horse's voice - and it works wonderfully! A treat. G

MARGARET'S MUSEUM
a very Canadian story of the coal miners' plight in Cape Breton, deservedly scooped the Genies this year. Helena Bonham Carter is amazing in this fine ensemble of characters, story, and screenplay. Incredibly poignant today as the Westray Mine Disaster dust is still settling. I'll be including a short video piece I shot at Salt Spring Cinema's award winning Gala Presentation with Director Mort Ranson introducing his film to the hometown crowd. R Adult themes, some disturbing scenes
