THE MOVIE

Ami temp Mike Nelson is stranded in orbit and subjected to a series of "experiments" by an evil mad scientist: forced viewings of the world's worst movies. In an attempt to keep his sanity, he and his robot friends Tom and Crow mercilessly and hilariously heckle the on-screen action. The movie this time: This Island Earth, a ripe and cheesy 1950's sci fic. A unique and side-splittingly funny theatre going experience. PG

It's A Wonderful Life

JIMMY STEWART - DONNA REED

Frank Capra's wonderful Christmas tale fell out of the public eye for years after release but now rivals A Christmas Carol and White Christmas for the pre-Yuletide airwaves. Save this classic to enjoy with a friendly M.M. audience this year! What better film to show at the E.M.P.? in original B&W 2hr. 12min. G

Disney's
TOY
STORY

Perhaps you've heard of this one.... We thought it ideal to present just before Christmas. The new classic Disney. G

Neil Simon's
The Goodbye Girl

The recent explosion onto the screen of the film "Richard III" reminded me of this one of a very much friendlier kind. Struggling actor, Richard Dreyfuss, attempts an outrageous Richard while insinuating himself into Marsha Mason's life. PG

6:30 Mon. Jan. 13

A young boy's escape from his cruel aunts with the help of a giant peach and some insect friends. Amazing characterizations in computer animation, combined with live action and a fanciful story by Roald Dahl - What's not to like? G (might be a bit scary in spots for little ones)

"A SEXY COMEDY THAT'S NOT QUITE KOSHER"
This gentle British comedy explores the complications that ensue from a couple of cases of switched test tubes. Leon's flight to self-realization is a study of guilt, identity crises, and role reversal. A small gem! PG
