

At the Movies

MOVIE MONDAY—Movies projected on a big screen, FREE. MM provides both quality entertainment and thought provoking material. Near the Victoria/Oak Bay border, at the Eric Martin Pavilion Theatre, South entrance of EMP building directly in from the big sign on Fort Street Main feature starts at 6:30 pm.

July 7—Inherit the Wind. Wonderful film about the landmark "Monkey Trials" in which a bible belt biology teacher was charged with teaching evolution. Crackling courtroom drama, an unforgettable performance by Spencer Tracy as legendary defence lawyer Clarence Darrow, and an issue that remains relevant today. Don't miss it! G

July 14—Secrets and Lies. With discussion. A simply told family drama that is as the box says, "Remarkable! Truthful and emotional, exquisitely balances humour and pain without tipping once." Everyone, including Cannes and the Academy loved this new release. PG

July 21—Disney's Robin Hood. Classic Disney animation, with voices of Peter Ustinov, Terry-Thomas, Andy Divine behind imaginative animal characters. G

July 28—Jupiter's Wife. With discussion. A documentary (and two year follow-up) about a woman living out in Central Park. Michel Negroponte's Emmy Award winning inquiry into Maggie's story intrigues us the mystery of her life and leads us to reflect on the experience of homelessness. PG13

Aug. 4—Executive Decision

Aug. 11—7th Voyage of Sinbad

Aug. 18—Streetcar Named Desire. With discussion. This 1951 landmark film includes some footage considered too hot in its time. Blanch Dubois is a Southern belle whose world begins to crumble when she moves into a claustrophobic New Orleans tenement with her sister and brutish brother-in-law. Virtuoso acting, powerful, disturbing drama. Vivien Leigh, Karl Malden, Kim Hunter all earned Oscars. Brando is amazing. PG13
