The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner

Tom Courtenay is perfect in this his first screen role as a tough reform school kid with a heart for running and an attitude that can't be compromised. Al Howie, Victoria's World Class Ultra-Marathoner, lives just up the street and will be on hand to regale us with his adventures PG

A terrific animated movie from Japanese legendary animator Hayao Miyazaki ("My Neighbor Totoro") . A young girl's adventures begin when she heads off on her broomstick with her parent's blessings to apprentice as a witch. It's a deeply reassuring parable of belonging. And on the visual level, it's simply astounding. Wonderful family film. Dubbed to English with star voices G

Two young native men travel from their Idaho rez to collect a dead father's ashes. A breakthrough independent production that's entertaining and honest, comic and heartbreaking - and one of the great films of 1998. PG

An old guy travels Europe with his band, his young wife, a packet of neuroses, prunes for breakfast, and a classic Woody sense of humour - and playing fabulous New Orleans Jazz PG

Into the West

An intriguing look into the lives of the Travelers, the Gypsies of Ireland. This family drama follows two winning young waifs and their Poppa living on the bleak margins of city life. Their healing adventure is catalyzed by a mystical white horse. PG

A romantic comedy with Adam Sandler as a genuinely sweet guy who smoothly facilitates sometimes difficult occasions - until his own wedding collapses. Drew Barrymore is adorable and cameos by Steve Buscemi (Fargo) and Billy Idol are great!
