METALLICA: Some Kind Of Monster

The film that redefines group therapy. Even if you avoid Heavy Metal music this film will draw you in. This feature documentary is about life off the road, and off the rails, for the mega-selling metal rock band. The filmmakers worked for almost two years, during a turbulent and disturbing time in the group's long career. When egos clash during the recording of a new album, the group's label hires a high-priced therapist to sort through the conflict R (for language)

SHARK TALE

When a son of a gangster shark boss is accidentally killed while on the hunt, his would be prey and his vegetarian brother both decide to use the incident to their own advantage. The DeNiro shark is brilliant, with voices of Will Smith, Renée Zellweger, Angelina Jolie, Jack Black, and Martin Scorsese. A lively and colourful story with a classic Disney moral. Pg

Read between the lies

The true story that shocked the nation.

The true story of a young journalist who fell from grace when it was found he had fabricated over half of his articles in "The New Republic". MM loves true stories - and stories about cons are great too. Here's a beauty, grippingly told. PG13

BEING CARIBOU

A documentary made by a couple who followed the caribou migration in the Yukon and Alaska for a season. This film brings us an intimate look at the powerful beauty and sacredness of the caribou and their habitat - just as their ancient existence is threatened in current U.S. land use legislation. Pg We'll be talking with the protagonists Leanne Allison and Karsten Heuer from their home in Dunster BC, west of Jasper where they're doing some calving of their own.

The WHITE BALLOON

A little girl wants a fat goldfish for the Iranian New Years celebration instead of the skinny ones in her family's pond at home. After many attempts she and her brother convince their mother to give them her last bit of money. On her quest she has many adventures, navigating her way through a world of adults (including a brush with snake charmers) in a culture where the young are to be seen, but not heard. The film takes us into the exotic world (to North Americans) of everyday Teheran through the eyes of this little girl. G

CALLAHAN

: he won't get far on foot

Documentaries about two notorious cartoonists, John Callahan and Robert Crumb. Both have had difficult lives. Both "outsider artists" have entertained us and challenged us as well. CRUMB is totally engrossing, not so much due to the extensive parade of Crumb's work that is displayed, but more to the cast of characters inhabiting this strange, strange world." Warning: Some politically incorrect and downright disturbing images. R
