cooking with stella

A tasty way to start out our Fall season. A warmhearted social satire about a Canadian diplomat (Lisa Ray) and her chef husband Michael (Don McKellar) who are posted to New Delhi. Upon arrival they inherit a household of Indian servants headed by the charming, totally inspiring and wily cook, Stella (Seema Biswas). When Stella agrees to become Michael's cooking guru, to teach him traditional Indian dishes, little does he know that she's cooking up a scheme of her own. 103min 2009 Pg

Based on the writings by its title subject, HBO Films' Temple Grandin is an engaging portrait of an autistic young woman who became, through timely mentoring and sheer force of will, one of America's most remarkable success stories. She developed an interest in cattle early in life, eventually leading to her humane design for the treatment of cattle in processing plants which have made her world renowned, even winning an award from PETA. Today, she is a professor at Colorado State University. As an author and activist she has had a huge influence on how autism and Aspergers is understood. 103min PG 2010 Won five awards at 2010 Emmys!

"MARION BRIDGE is filled with humor and powerful emotion as a middle sister returns to her rural, Cape Breton hometown after living wild in Toronto. Her view her return skeptically, but Agnes insists she's given up the booze and drugs she once played heavily with, and takes charge of their alcoholic mother's care [and copes with other family skeletons]. A stand out film." 90min 2002 Pg13 Special guests Marty Nicholaus, Author and founder of LifeRing Secular Recovery Worldwide and Michael Walsh, Executive Director of LifeRing Canada

Great times at the movies and Soul are somethings to be thankful for. An encore of a favourite at MM. Maltin says, "Enormously satisfying tale of an ambitious young Dubliner who takes on the challenge of assembling...a band made up of working class Dubliners who sing '60's-style blues! Disarmingly engaging from the word go, with an charismatic cast of unknowns; filled with irresistible music. A real treat." 118min 1991 Pg - lots of colourful street language

San Francisco Filmmaker and mental health activist Ken Paul Rosenthal will screen Crooked Beauty, his poetic documentary that chronicles artist-activist Jacks McNamara's journey from psych ward patient to pioneering mental health advocate. Rosenthal will talk about his challenge to embody the film's character with compassion and authenticity. Discussion will focus on nurturing wellness through our relationship to the natural world, drawing new maps for 'madness' as a tool of insight, creativity and hope, and alternatives to the stigmas and stereotypes around representing madness in the media. A very special and provocative piece that will spark a lively discussion. 35min 2010 Pg USA see trailer at www.crookedbeauty.com
