Come to an entertaining
- and meaningful - evening including a screening of Despicable Me!

This is a fundraiser to raise money for an Esquimalt Neighbourhood House volunteer, Kate Day, going to get M.S. treatment that is not yet available in Canada.
Guest speaker, Margaret Bryant, will join us to share her experiences with the treatment. Raffle tickets/gift basket draw also available at the event. Admission is by donation, please give generously.

Despicable Me is an immensely entertaining story of a supervillain who plans to use three orphan girls as pawns for a grand scheme, only to find that their innocent love is profoundly changing him. 95min 2010 Pg

A drama
based on the autobiography
by Li

Cunxin. At the age of 11, Li was plucked from a poor Chinese village by Madame Mao's cultural delegates and taken to Beijing to study ballet. In 1979, during a cultural exchange to Texas, he becomes a focus of a high stakes game between emerging but deeply controlling China and the 'free' West.

Bruce Greenwood is brilliant as the Houston dancemaster "...the delight of this film isn't so much in the tale as the telling." 117min 2009 Pg

This is Women In Sport Week!
BASEBALL GIRLS is an exploration of the private and professional lives of women obsessed with the sport they love. Using animation, archival still and live-action footage, this zany and affectionate feature documentary details the history of women's participation in the largely male-dominated world of baseball and softball.

Greater Victoria Anti-Stigma Week; Drug Use, Dignity and Human Rights", the sponsored by the Greater Victoria Anti-Stigma Coalition.

Senator Larry
Campbell is just one of many whose voices you'll hear

After 30 years of drug war, illegal narcotics are decreasing in price, increasing in purity and demand continues to surge. The heroes of this film are veterans of the drug war and they urge us to consider ending drug prohibition.
They have had a complete revolution in their thinking. Now they are working to end the War on Drugs. Find out what happened to change their minds. By NS filmmaker Connie Littlefield 54min

MARY & MAX

A different kind of love story for Valentines Day. Mary (Bethany Whitmore) is a lonely eight-year-old girl in Melbourne; randomly picking a name out of the New York phone book, she writes a letter to Max (Philip Seymour Hoffman), a middle-aged Jewish man with Asperger syndrome. So begins a decades-long correspondence (Mary eventually grows up to be voiced by Toni Collette) that will have deep resonant meaning for two souls whose lives are otherwise filled with meaningless and alienation.

Beautiful Dreamers

A classic Canadian film based on a true story, about the evolution of psychiatric practice in the late 1800s. 105min 1990 Pg13. We'll be joined by two Canadian authors with recent books related to the film. Psychiatrist Harry Karlinsky, author of The Evolution of Inanimate Objects: the life and works of Thomas Darwin (2010). and George Fetherling with Walt Whitman's Secret (2010) will be with us to read and talk about the meeting of Maurice Bucke, superintendent of London ON Asylum and the famous poet as they conspired to humanize some of what they recognized to be barbaric practices of the day for the "insane and the mentally deficient".
