Al Pacino dons three hats, as creator, director and star, in this intertwining performance of Shakespeare's gripping, tragic 'Richard III' and an intimate and often comic look at the struggle to bring the play to film. A terrific primer on The Bard and the passionate people who illuminate his classic plays - by the versatile actor we know better as a gangster and mafia don, more recently as Jack Kevorkian (You Don't Know Jack). 111min 1996 Pg13 Speaking of the modern world, the skeleton of R III, with tell-tale crooked backbone, was recently uncovered a year ago under a parking lot in Leicester. It has since been verified with DNA testing, comparing with known descendants.

THE SAPPHIRES follows four vivacious, young and talented Australian Aboriginal women from a remote mission as they learn about love, friendship and war when their all girl group, 'The Sapphires', entertains the U.S. troops in Vietnam in 1968. The 'girls' are discovered by the Dave, (Chris O'Dowd - The IT Crowd, Bridesmaids), a good-humoured talent scout with a kind heart, very little rhythm but a great knowledge of soul music. Billed as Australia's answer to 'The Supremes', Dave secures the sisters their first true gig, and flies them to Vietnam to sing for the American troops. Based on a true story, THE SAPPHIRES is a triumphant celebration of youthful emotion, family and music. 103min 2012 Pg13

Two lives, one accident, 10 songs.
A barrier is crossed between yuppie young executive woman and a scruffy, homeless street musician when she hits him with her car in a distracted moment. She is gradually drawn into his world of puzzling ideals as she tries to make up for the accident. Set in downtown Vancouver and written, protagonist acted, even the songs composed and performed by once "Hollywood North" stuntman, now director, Kirk Caouette. 91min 2012 Pg
