IN THE FAMILY

In a heartfelt story woven around child custody, two-dad families, loss, interracial relations, the American South, and the human side of the law, the nature of what it means to be a family is explored with ambitious and rewarding nuance. This amazing first feature was written, directed, and lead role played by Patrick Wang. 169min 2011 Pg13 Don't miss this special film! Roger Ebert: "In the Family" is a long film...I was completely absorbed from beginning to end. What a courageous first feature this is, a film that sidesteps shopworn stereotypes and tells a quiet, firm, deeply humanist story about doing the right thing." Guests Director Patrick Wang by phone from NYC, and Jason Whyte local film critic

Birth Story celebrates Ina May Gaskin and her counter-culture friends, who began delivering each other's babies in 1970, and established a renowned centre for midwifery in Tennessee. "Warm, spirited and occasionally slathered in goo, 'Birth Story' is a celebratory tribute to the endangered art of midwifery and its most influential practitioner, Ina May Gaskin. A disarming example of documentary filmmaking that stakes out an opinion with plain-spoken, commonsensical wisdom, this [film] doubles as a defense of natural childbirth and an affectionate look back at the movement's '70s countercultural roots." 95mn 2012 Pg13 With special guests, doulas and midwives from Mothering Touch and Access Midwifery and Family Care!

GOOD OL' FREDA

Freda Kelly was just a shy Liverpooldian teenager fan when she was asked to work for a local band hoping to make it big. Freda remained a staple in the Beatles' world for 11 years because of her unfaltering loyalty and dedication. As the Beatles' devoted secretary and friend, Freda was there as history unfolded; she was witness to the evolution – advances and setbacks, breakthroughs and challenges – of the greatest band in history. In Good Ol' Freda, Freda tells her stories for the first time in 50 years. Freda has the insiders perspective but also a refreshing integrity that is uncommon in our tell-all celebrity world. 86min 2013 Pg
