Alice Howland, happily married with three grown children, is a renowned linguistics professor who starts to forget words. When she receives a diagnosis of Early-Onset Alzheimer's Disease, Alice and her family find their bonds thoroughly tested. Her struggle to stay connected to who she once was is frightening, heartbreaking, and inspiring. Julianne Moore is absolutely brilliant in this role. The film delivers a very realistic, sensitive look at one family's experience. With Alec Baldwin, Kristen Stewart 101min 2014 Pg13 discussion with folks from the Alzheimers Society.

THIS AIN'T NO MOUSE MUSIC!

My special pick to celebrate MM's 22nd Anniversary!

Born a German count, Chris Strachwitz fled his homeland at sixteen after WWII. In the US, he discovered, and shared, a musical landscape that most Americans missed, the people's music. Founder of Arhoolie Records, here is a man who has followed his bliss last for the last fifty years. He has carried his tape recorder from sharecrop shacks to roadside honkytonks, from cantina dives to wild Blues clubs - and brought a whole lot of people along with him. He takes us on a hip-shaking stomp from Texas to New Orleans, Cajun country to Appalachia, as he continues his passion for the musical soul of America. 92min 2013 Pg There'll be cake! (MM don't show no mouse movies either!)

Justine hasn't played her guitar since stage fright forced her to give up her dream of becoming a musician. After her boyfriend leaves town, Justine, depressed and unfulfilled, picks up her neglected guitar which takes her on a journey that gets her heart beating for the first time in years. From the creative team, filmmaker Andrea Dorfman and musician, poet Tanya Davis who brought the charming short film, How To Be Alone to 8 million viewers. This feature brings together all of that same charm, music and sprinkling of animation to our 'big screen'.

MM is very pleased to bring Andrea to Victoria in person for Heartbeat's Victoria premiere.

GOD SAVE JUSTIN TRUDEAU

This documentary feature follows the much-hyped 2012 charity boxing match between Liberal MP Justin Trudeau and Conservative Senator Patrick Brazeau. A behind-the-scenes look at the fight to win, whether in politics or in the ring, gives new, surprising insights into what makes these ambitious political leaders tick, and reminds us that outcomes are never certain. 90min 2015 Pg Q&A with filmmaker Éric Ruel by phone from Montreal

Victoria filmmaker Maureen Bradley's debut feature is a bittersweet comedy centered around an unimaginable predicament. Forty-year-old Adam's lonely, quiet life is interrupted when he gets a phone call from his hysterical ex-girlfriend, Miriam, who is trying to get pregnant with a donor's sperm. The day she inseminates herself, they wind up in bed together. Now for the twist: Adam is transgendered. Four years ago, he started his transition from female to male but it isn't quite complete. In fact, he gets a little bit pregnant himself. He's torn between his feelings for Miriam, his need for a masculine identity and his eccentric pot-smoking mother's (Gabrielle Rose) desire for grandchildren in this funny and thought-provoking farce. 77min 2014 14A Maureen Bradley will be with us for a Q&A!
