As a steady, good natured horse, Snowman was also a family horse for the deLeyer children and a learning seat for many young riders as well.

It won't spoil it to know the story ahead of time, but unlike The Titanic, this one has a happy ending.

Dutch immigrant, Harry deLeyer, journeyed to the United States after World War II and developed a transformative relationship with a broken down Amish plow horse he rescued off a slaughter truck bound for the glue factory. Harry paid eighty dollars for the horse and named him Snowman. In less than two years, Harry & Snowman went on to win the triple crown of show jumping, beating the nations blue bloods. They were famous for their day and traveled around the world together. Their chance meeting at a Pennsylvania horse auction saved them both and crafted a friendship that lasted a lifetime.

Eighty-six year old Harry tells their Cinderella love story firsthand, as he continues to train on today's show jumping circuit. 82min 2015 Pg
