Spirit Unforgettable at MM

Both CBC and CFX radio interviews earlier in the day. Premiere screening for Victoria to a very enthusiastic overflow house with a second screening added..

Filmmaker Pete McCormack phoned in to do Q&As with both screenings.

Added Pete's music video "Wide Open" and a 5:35min segment of "Before She's Gone" a love story with Alzheimers by Vancouver filmmaker Arun Fryer about his grandparents loving relationship in spite of her Alzheimers.

Vancouver filmmaker Pete McCormack (Facing Ali, Ughanda Rising, I Am Bruce Lee) brings us the story of John Mann, lead singer of the iconic Vancouver band Spirit of the West, and his struggle with early onset Alzheimers. McCormack has built a compelling and emotionally powerful narrative around archival clips and intimate interviews that reveal Mann, his wife Jill and his bandmates to be endlessly engaging and surprisingly candid. This affecting documentary builds to the sort of riveting performance that's made the band a local legend. 80min 2016 Pg <http://www.spiritunforgettable.com/>
