1970, the King of Rock'n' Roll showed up on the lawn of the White House to request a meeting with President Nixon. He was looking to help out America by becoming a Special Agent. The badge would allow him to carry weapons and whatever else.... In turn he would be an under cover agent, protecting his country from Communists and drugs. The official photo taken with Nixon has become the most requested in National Archives. Kevin Spacey channels Nixon and Michael Shannon resurrects The King. 2016 86min R for language (Nixon was bad for that)

CALL OF THE BABY BELUGA

The story of this baby whale leads us on a larger journey through the amazing world of the endangered St. Lawrence beluga whales and the scientists who have worked for decades against long odds to help them. Like the story of the baby beluga, it is a tough trip in a beautiful place, a true tale of drama, uncertainty, camaraderie, hard work, achievement, perseverance, and love, brightened by a glimpse of hope. 60min 2016 G with Michael Parfit narrating

On a snowy night in February 1972, celebrated jazz musician Lee Morgan was shot dead by his wife Helen during a gig at a club in New York City. The murder sent shockwaves through the jazz community, and the memory of the event still haunts those who knew the Morgans. This documentary is a love letter to two unique personalities and the music that brought them together. A film about love, addiction, murder, jazz and America, with amazing archival photos, great music and crisp interviews. 91min 2016 Pg

Based on an internationally best-selling book this charming feature film tells the moving and life-affirming true story of the unlikely friendship between a young homeless busker, James Bowen, and the stray ginger cat named Bob who changed his life. With the real cat in the title role! 103min 2016 Pg Trailer: www.youtube.com/watch?v=OUS--2gt1As

Bob and the real James

One of the truly legendary musicals in the history of Broadway, MERRILY WE ROLL ALONG opened to enormous fanfare in 1981, and closed after sixteen performances. For the first time, BEST WORST THING THAT EVER COULD HAVE HAPPENED draws back the curtain on the extraordinary drama of the show's creation - and tells the stories of the hopeful young performers whose lives were transformed by it. Directed by Lonny Price, a member of the original cast, the film is a bittersweet meditation on the choices we all make, and the often unexpected consequences of those choices. 95 min 2016 Pg Simply THE BEST! I love this doc!

In collaboration with Transgender Studies and Writing Dept at UVic. Three young Native Americans, an adopted Christian girl, a rebellious father-to-be, and a transgender woman, strive to escape the hardships of life on a Navajo reserve. A first and powerful feature film from Sydney Freeman who grew up on the rez in Gallup New Mexico where the film was shot. Robert Redford came on as Exec Director and the film was workshopped at Sundance. It's one of those special gems that comes with an authentic heart. 95min 2015 R.
