We seldom hear about war-making from the 'other side'. This amazing film takes us into the community of men in a compressed space - hunting and being hunted.

It's the fictional but authentic story of the German submarine U-96 and its crew during the Battle of the Atlantic in the winter of 1941, as they set out on yet another hazardous patrol.

We experience both the excitement of battle and the tedium of the fruitless hunt, and meet the men serving aboard U-boats as ordinary individuals with a desire to do their best for their comrades and their country.

This is a unique opportunity to see the 3.5 hr director's cut!

210 minutes (with intermission) 1981 R for coarse and suggestive language & wartime violence. Subtitled
